foreword

Eagerly and vivaciously, each student anticipates the three years which are to constitute his life at GHS. At least once during this time a lasting impression is made. To one this may be only a subconscious touch; to another, a lasting glow. The impression is that shadow which GHS casts upon all who pass through her doors—a shadow of knowledge, achievement, democracy, spirit, and honor. It is a living, growing, omni-present thing. Because of it, students are imbued with responsibility; yet, they welcome it. Living and working under this phantom of greatness, they struggle and fight to attain their goals. And yet, perhaps unknown to them, this shadow becomes a part of their being, urging them ever onward. Nevertheless, the permanent shadow is left in the halls of GHS and in the hearts of her students as a link to the past and a promise of the future.

There is a school we love in Dixie Land,
'Tis Greenville High for which we take our stand.

We'll ever keep the sweet lessons you have taught
Our hearts will turn to thee in tenderness,
And pray God bless you, dear old GHS.

Dear Gayle,
We've finally made it and I'm just real glad I got the chance to get to know you. You are a fine girl with a big future and I hope your dream come true. It's been fun in algebra! Between the two of us we did get our homework didn't we! Best of luck in Florida!

FIRST ROW: Milton Allen, Johnny Farnsworth, Dickie Dietz, Jerry King, Clark Gaston, Oliver Bennett, Joe Buckner, Johnny Carson, Gerry Benston, Bill Bailey, Mike Pannell, Peter Stipp, (SECOND ROW) Joe Stevenson, Bucky Hughey, Dutch Knight, Dwight Odom, John Waldrop, Archie Black, Johnny Sisk, Bill Key, Bob Hubbard, Charles Lawton, Charles Bolt, David White, Alton Buddin, James Peigler, (THIRD ROW) Charlie Wofford, Asa Gray, Steve Jones, Richard Kohn, Johnny Brown, Billy Linn, Tommy Coan, Jimmy Kellett, Dirgen May, Emory Poole, Tommy Gibson, Jerry Hooper, Roy Crisp, Pete Fayssoux, (FOURTH ROW) George Smith, Jimmy Smith, Johnny Kendall, Tommy McNeill, Robert Gaskins, Jerry Hollingsworth, and Wayne Hudson.

Coach James A. Moore's mighty Red Raiders of 1958 lived up to tradition and over-powered the majority of their opponents thus compiling the enviable record of 7 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie. The season was not without error, however, for after downing cross-town Carolina (19-13) and Edwards High of Sumter (20-0), the boys from the "school on the hill" fell before the sting of Anderson's Yellow Jackets (22-12) for the first time in eight years.

Spirits weren't dampened for long though, and the following week found the Mooremen fighting undefeated Gaffney to a close (21-20) heartbreaking loss. Experience began to mold the boys into a tougher fighting machine, as defeat had definitely come too often already. Invaded by the first place Greenwood Emeralds, the team shocked sports fans all over the state by decisively overpowering Coach "Pinky" Babb's squad 26-19. The following week GHS downed the Devildogs from Travelers Rest (27-12) in a game which found the cross-county class A school doggedly contesting the might of AAA Greenville.

Defeat, however, came again to haunt Greenville High footballers, (17-0), as swift backs and a hard charging line enabled the Dreher Blue Devils to extend their win streak to the most enviable in the state. Then, before a heartbroken homecoming crowd, insult was added to injury as the Raiders fell to the Caps of Columbia High 13-7.

Coming into the home stretch, the Mooremen played one of their best games as they broke (14-13) the 43 game win streak of touted North Augusta. Next the mighty squad from Daniel invaded Sirrine stadium and produced some of the most rugged competition the home team had faced as the score was held to a (13-13) tie. The Spartanburg forces didn't fare so well against the GHS team, for they fell (28-0) in one of the squad's most outstanding games of the year.

Thanksgiving Day finally arrived and again Coach James A. Moore's charges defended their fine record against Coach Whitie Kendall's Golden Tornado from Parker. As tradition would have it, the stands slowly filled with exhuberant fans who were to see an overwhelming victory for GHS. From the opening whistle to the closing gun, domination of the game clearly fell to the Greenville eleven and when the dust had cleared and the last cheer had died, the scoreboard revealed a bruising, hard-earned (35-6) victory over the classic rivals.

Such a win was a fit ending to a good season, not only in terms of the won-loss record, but also in terms of contributions to clean, competitive athletics. Greenville High can always be proud of the '58-'59 football season both on the field and in the stands where victory was the wish and sportsmanship was the way.

Dear Gayle,

Dear Hayle,

I wish I had two hours to say all that I won't to say, but anyway here it is. You know that I love you and will never forget the blasts we've had together. We both have an odd way of getting into scrapes, but we always manage to survive by hook or by crook. Paul is "So Fine" and I hope and pray for the happiness of you both. Don't ever forget the beach, nights with Paul and the girls, parties at my house, Louanne's, and spending the night at your house after dating or going off. I think that the night at the Toddle House symbolized the two years of fun that you and I have shared, we've always laughed; that's what I like about you, no matter how sad I feel you can always cheer me up. After you read this think back through the months and remember all the things I couldn't put down.

Hayle, I'll never forget our friendship,

nikki

Gayle!
I don't know what to say - except I love you (queer - nah!) and I always will! You're such a wonderful girl and Paul is the luckiest boy in the world! I could never begin to tell you what our long talks about Jimmy has meant to me - I never could have kept him as long as I did without your advice. One memory that will always linger in my mind is the Picnic we had with Jimmy and Paul - that's the most fun I ever had. Next year I'm going to miss you like hell - We'll just have to get together at Christmas and "Party" - I'll be living for next December when we all get back together Just a few weeks! Gayle I'm so excited about the beach I can't stand it. Just think - the Big Four all together once again - We'll sneak out one night and me and you will hit the "brew" together Just think - one whole week in the salty waves - If you get darker than me - I'll kill you! I'll never forget what fun we had in dear ol "Shit High". Ever since the tenth grade you have always been one of my closest friends. I guess you know that - especially since that "heart to heart" talk we had on your bed a few weeks ago - Don't breathe a word of it O.K.? Well I will end this up by saying I hope we will always be the closest of friends and I can always come to you with my troubles! Graduation - Here we COME!! Love always, your SIS
